Jack Atkerson

jatkerson18@gmail.com | LinkedIn | 615-917-7836 | 802 Potter Ln., Nashville, TN 37206

Professional Summary

Recent graduate from one of the top audio engineering programs in the country with experience recording, editing, and mixing in a professional studio environment. Knowledge of audio signal flow, digital audio technology, microphone techniques, and music theory. Seeking employment or internships in the audio industry. Hard-working, organized, and well disposed. Passionate to further my knowledge of audio engineering and the music industry.

Education

Middle Tennessee State University | Murfreesboro, TN (Dec. 2020)
Bachelor of Science in Audio Production

Work History

Blackbird Studio | Intern | Nashville, TN (Aug. 2020 - March 2021)
Assisted in daily studio operations in one of the world's leading recording studios.
Responsibilities included:

- Performing client services such as runs, restocking snacks, drinks, equipment, etc. in each studio.
- Maintaining professional appearance and cleanliness of each studio.
- Assisting audio engineers with session set-ups and teardowns.
- Assisting audio engineers with various tasks during sessions (ex. clicking mics, patching, grabbing outboard gear/instruments/equipment).
- Assisting with the organization and delivery/retrieval of rental equipment.
- Work on individual and group engineering projects as time allowed.
- Work on various audio engineering training sessions with assistant engineers on duty.

Geodis | Material Handler | Lebanon, TN (Jan. 2020 - March 2021)
Utilized for material handling at one of the largest global third-party logistics providers for one of the top five largest companies in the world by market capitalization.
Responsibilities included:

- Picking product to fill consumer orders.
- Packing and shipping product.
- Wrapping pallets for shipment to commercial clients.
- Operating robots that assist in the process of pre-shipping preparation.
- Training new employees on the systems and equipment used to perform jobs.